News from Dustin in South Korea

The following is an excerpt of the e-mail Dustin Ledbetter sent to Grand Master Lee on August 25, 2008:

I start teaching English in one week and I'm kind of excited. I got to see the Blue House (South Korea's equivalent to our White House) last weekend. President Lee Myung-bak wasn't there because he was in Beijing at the Olympics, but we still might get to meet him some time during the year I'm over here. South Korea is amazing, Sir. I love it here. I'm learning so much about respect and the differences in our cultures. My friends speak both Korean and English. I'm still training in Hap Ki Do. Grand Master Ko, at the Han Ki Do school, wants me to train with him and his son a few times a week in the morning - is that is OK with you, Sir? I want to get your permission before I attend. I hope KMA is doing well. Here are some pictures for everyone to see at home. Dustin

Korea Trip '09

Fundraising has begun by the students and families participating in the trip to Korea in July 2009, for the National Championship. A bake sale at the August Gup testing raised over $170. Erick secured a $200 donation, as well, for the KMA Community Fund. Future fund raisers include a 50/50 raffle at the KMA picnic on Sept 7, a gourmet coffee sale, an E-Bay garage sale, and further Gup testing bake sales. Thank you for your support.

Fresh Eggs

The KMA family includes a "grower" of some of the most delicious, farm-fresh, brown eggs with huge, bright golden yokes. To order these tasty eggs, call Nancy Micklatcher at 731-4068 - enjoy!!
